Wishing Stars

Why do 'Māori fly kites at Matariki?

When Matariki is visible, it is a sign that the new year has begun. It is a time to celebrate the beginning of the year and to wish for a good one. The kite is a symbol of hope and a wish for a good year. It is a time to fly the kite and to wish for a good year.

Traditional Māori Tiki

The tiki is a traditional Māori figure. It is a wooden figure that is carved from a single piece of wood. It has a thatched roof and a long, shaggy tail. The tiki is a symbol of good luck and a wish for a good year. It is a time to fly the tiki and to wish for a good year.
