

ENGLISH

English 101 Futures (ENG101F)

Teacher to see: Mrs J Fugmann

This course is about the changing world that we live in and the future impact on society. Students may focus on technology, social media, the environment, conflict etc. and ways of making changes in society. The learning goals of this course are: to show understanding of what you read, view and listen to; produce creative and/or formal writing; explain connections between texts.

Prerequisites: Selection by teacher.

Credits			Standards	Cost	None
Internal	External	Total	Achievement Standards	Course endorsement	Yes
10	8	18		UE approved	Not applicable

Future possibilities: Any field which values the skills of communication and critical thinking.

English Communications 102 (ENC102)

Teacher to see: Ms Tristram

The learning goals of this course are to: improve communication and literacy skills; provide the opportunity to gain the 10 credits from the Literacy Package. The course assesses skills in: reading; writing; speaking and listening.

Prerequisites: Selection by teacher.

Credits			Standards	Cost	None
Internal	External	Total	Unit Standards	Course endorsement	No
16	0	16		UE approved	Not applicable

Future possibilities: Any field which values the skills of communication and critical thinking.

English Humanities 101 (ENG101H)			Teacher to see: Mrs J Fugmann
This course focuses on the effects of racism, sexism and other social injustice on our world. The learning goals of this course are: to show understanding of what you read, view and listen to; produce creative and/or formal writing; explain connections between texts.
Prerequisites: Selection by teacher.
Credits			Standards	Cost	None
Internal	External	Total	Achievement Standards	Course endorsement	Yes
10	8	18		UE approved	Not applicable
Future possibilities: Any field which values communication and critical thinking skills.

English Visual 101 (ENG101V)			Teacher to see: Mrs J Fugmann
We live in a visual world where we communicate through TV, film and the internet. This course will focus on these while working on the skills of English. The learning goals of this course are: to show understanding of what you read, view and listen to; produce creative and/or formal writing; explain connections between texts.
Prerequisites: Selection by teacher.
Credits			Standards	Cost	None
Internal	External	Total	Achievement Standards	Course endorsement	Yes
10	4	14		UE approved	Not applicable
Future possibilities: Any field which values communication and critical thinking skills.

English 201 (ENG201)			Teacher to see: Mrs J Fugmann
The learning goals of this course are: analyse what you read, view and listen to; produce a range of crafted and controlled writing; analyse connections between texts construct and deliver a controlled speech.
Prerequisites: 14+ AS at L1, including at least one M or E in external(s)
Credits			Standards	Cost	None
Internal	External	Total	Achievement Standards	Course endorsement	Yes
10	8	18		UE approved	Not applicable
Future possibilities: Any field which values the skills of communication and critical thinking.

English Communications 202 (ENC202)			Teacher to see: Whaea Campbell
The learning goals of this course are to: improve communication and literacy skills and build upon the literacy skills gained from the ECML2 course. This course assesses skills in: reading; writing; speaking and listening.
Prerequisites: Level 1 Literacy or 10 credits from ECM102.
Credits			Standards	Cost	None
Internal	External	Total	Unit Standards	Course endorsement	No
12	0	12		UE approved	Not applicable
Future possibilities: Any field which values the skills of communication and critical thinking.

English Language 202 (ENL202)			Teacher to see: Whaea Campbell
The learning goals of this course are: show understanding of what you read; produce a range of writing; and use information literacy skills to research a topic. The course is designed to include some UE Literacy credits.
Prerequisites: 6+ AS from L1
Credits			Standards	Cost	None
Internal	External	Total	Achievement Standards	Course endorsement	No
12	4	16		UE approved	Not applicable
Future possibilities: Any field which values the skills of communication and critical thinking.

English 301 (ENG301)			Teacher to see: Ms Tristram
The learning goals of this course are: respond critically to what you read, view and listen to; produce a selection of writing; respond critically to connections between texts; deliver a fluent and coherent speech. It is tailored for students wishing to continue with English at university.
Prerequisites: 14+ credits from L2, including at least one M or E in both external(s) and internals.
Credits			Standards	Cost	None
Internal	External	Total	Achievement Standards	Course endorsement	Yes
10	8	18		UE approved	Yes
Future possibilities: Any field which values the skills of communication and critical thinking.

English Communications 302 (ENC302)			Teacher to see: Ms Tristram
The learning goals of this course are to: improve communication and literacy skills and build upon the literacy skills gained from the ECML2 course. This course assesses skills in: reading; writing; speaking and listening.
Prerequisites: 10+ credits at ECM202.
Credits			Standards	Cost	None
Internal	External	Total	Unit Standards	Course endorsement	No
14	0	14		UE approved	No
Future possibilities: Any field which values the skills of communication and critical thinking.

University Entrance English (EUE301)			Teacher to see: Mrs J Fugmann
This course is for Year 13 students who need further credits to gain University Entrance. The course will focus on individual pathways and IEPs.
Prerequisites: Selection by teacher.
Credits			Standards	Cost	None
Internal	External	Total	Achievement Standards	Course endorsement	No
14	0	14		UE approved	No
Future possibilities: Any field which values the skills of communication and critical thinking.					